

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional skill as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Ciera Hansen of St. Charles, Missouri, recently received top honors for excellence in competition during the 2004 International Delta Epsilon Chi Career Development Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee; and

Whereas, one of seventeen high school students to receive international recognition, Ciera Hansen put forth a tremendous degree of effort while competing with sixteen thousand of the best and brightest high school marketing students from across the United States and Canada; and

Whereas, Delta Epsilon Chi's internationally recognized program of competitive events uses interviews, tests, role-plays, and written project reports to evaluate marketing and management skills identified by the national business community as essential for success in the business world of today; and

Whereas, an outstanding student at Francis Howell North High School in St. Charles where she has been named to the National Honor Society and the National Honor Roll, Ciera Hansen took Second Place in International Delta Epsilon Chi Competition in the Fashion Merchandising Promotion Plan Event; and

Whereas, Ciera Hansen holds local, state, and national Delta Epsilon Chi membership and takes pride in the enviable list of achievement she has attained at Francis Howell North High School as the Baseball Manager and member of the Varsity Volleyball Team, Mu Alpha Theta, Spanish Club, and the Knights of the Round Table; and

Whereas, Ciera Hansen has achieved her every ambition with the love, support, and encouragement she has continually received from her proud and loving parents, Jeff and Michelle Hansen, and her brother, Chad:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Ciera Hansen at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Ciera Hansen as she is honored at the Missouri Governor's Mansion in Jefferson City on May 14, 2004.
